

International Summer School Program Opportunities Offered by Air University

UNITED KINGDOM

Introduction:

Air University presents an exciting opportunity for its students through an annual summer school program in the United Kingdom. By embarking on this journey to the United Kingdom, Air University students can expect to gain invaluable insights, forge international connections, and embrace a global perspective that extends beyond the confines of traditional classrooms. Air University has signed an agreement with the University of Liverpool, one of the top 200 universities in the world, to host Air University students at their campus for a duration of 03 weeks. This short-term opportunity is cost effective and provides international study exposure in less time.
