

Important Instructions :

Online Admission Payment Procedure

- Online admission charges are payable at any branch of Bank AL Habib Limited.
- The System generated Challan Form can be printed from Applicants Account after registration.
- After submission of processing fee in the bank, you must re-login to Air University Online Admission System and update your Challan information.

Ineligibility

- Students dismissed from Air University are not eligible for re-admission in any academic programs.
- Partial pass candidates will not be eligible for admission in any programs.
- Please note that submitting incomplete, false or misleading information is considered sufficient ground for denial of admission and dismissal at any time.