Air University Facilitation portal is a responsive and device oriented online application that eliminate the communication barrier and facilitate the users to perform reliable and fast interaction to Air University departments as well as it makes easiness in one to one verbal communication.

HOW THE USERS CAN SIGN IN?

1. AU EMPLOYEE LOGIN: The Employees can access the AU Facilitation Portal by visiting https://portals.au.edu.pk/austaff as well as https://portals.au.edu.pk/aufp. The employees can use AU-Staff portal credentials to make login for both screen as shown in Figure 1 and 2. If an employee has forgotten his password, then click on Forgot Password and provide essential information to set new password.
1.1 When user can successfully sign in then login in AU-Staff portal dashboard will be shown, the employee can access the AU Facilitation Portal by using the link as mentioned on left side of Figure 3.
1.2 When user click on Facilitation portal then it’s switching towards AU Facilitation Portal, some essential detail of employee profile and his queries will show in small sections as highlighted in Figure 4. The Employee can see the list of Pending Queries, Processing Queries and Completed Queries in particular tabs.

The notifications option showing the number of pending queries and it will be updated whenever new query is added as shown on the right side of Figure 5. A user can initiate a new query, by click on the “Add New Query” button and input some essential details as shown in Figure 5.

1.3 To add a new query, user will input the following essential information as shown in Figure 5 and 6

- Select the desired department from dropdown list.
- Select query type according the selected department from dropdown list.
- Input query description in detailed manners.
- Upload a file (Optional)
- Select Urgent option for urgent type of queries otherwise choose normal type.
1.4 The user can see the list of submitted/new queries in Pending Queries tab and processing/completed queries in respective tab. Each query can view in detailed manner by clicking on eye button as shown in Figure 7.

1.5 In query detail panel, user can view the current status and ticket number of particular query as well as the admin reply will be visible against query description.

User can also make query extension or input some more detail regarding its query by simple click on ADD button. After adding, a new query thread will generate immediately and user can see the entire log of its particular query.
2. AU STUDENT LOGIN: Student can access the AU Facilitation Portal by visiting https://portals.au.edu.pk/STDTEST as well as https://portals.au.edu.pk/aufp. The students can use Student Portal credentials to make login for both screen as shown in Figure 9 and 10. If student has forgotten his password, then click on Forgot Password and provide essential information to set new password.
2.1 When user can successfully sign in then Student portal dashboard will be shown, the student can access the AU Facilitation Portal by using the link as mentioned on left side of Figure 12.

!Figure 12

2.2 When user click on Facilitation portal then switching towards AU Facilitation Portal, some essential detail of student profile and his queries will show in small sections as highlighted in Figure 4. The Student can see the list of Pending Queries, Processing Queries and Completed Queries in particular tabs.

The notifications option showing the number of pending queries and it will be updated whenever new query is added as shown on the right side of Figure 13. A user can initiate a new query, by click on the “Add New Query” button and input some essential details as shown in Figure 13.

!Figure 13
2.3 To add a new query, user will input the following essential information as shown in Figure 14 and 15

- Select the desired department from dropdown list.
- Select query type according to the selected department from dropdown list.
- Input query description in detailed manners.
- Upload a file (Optional)
- Select Urgent option for urgent type of queries otherwise choose normal type.
2.4 The user can see the list of submitted/new queries in Pending Queries tab and processing/completed queries in respective tab. Each query can view in detailed manner by clicking on eye button as shown in Figure 16.

2.5 In query detail panel, user can view the current status and ticket number of particular query. User can also make query extension or input some more detail regarding its query by simple click on ADD button. After adding, a new query thread will generate immediately and user can see the entire log of its particular query.
3. OUTSIDER LOGIN: OUTSIDER can access the AU Facilitation Portal by visiting https://portals.au.edu.pk/aufp. The outsider can use registration to make login for screen as shown in Figure 18. If outsider has forgotten his password, then click on Forgot Password and provide essential information to set new password.

!Figure 18

3.1 The outsider users will register through the Signup Account in Figure 19 and Users will see Frequently Ask Questions (FAQs) for more Info about Admission Department and Registration Department in Figure 20 and 21.

!Figure 19
3.2 The outsider will click in Signup Button then registration page will open in new window in Figure 22. Some essential detail will provide the information like Full name, Email, CNIC, Cell Number, City. The Outsider can use Email as User and CNIC as Password and after successfully create of login account then User can put their Email Address and Password as shown in the figure 22.
3.3 The outsider can see some essential detail of student profile and his queries will show in small sections as highlighted in Figure 23. The Student can see the list of Pending Queries, Processing Queries and Completed Queries in particular tabs.

The notifications option showing the number of pending queries and it will be updated whenever new query is added and user can initiate a new query, by click on the “Add New Query” button and input some essential details as shown in Figure 23.

!Figure 23

3.4 To add a new query, user will input the following essential information as shown in Figure 24 and 25

- Select the desired department from dropdown list.
- Select query type according the selected department from dropdown list.
- Input query description in detailed manners.
- Upload a file (Optional)
- Select Urgent option for urgent type of queries otherwise choose normal type.

!Figure 24
3.5 The user can see the list of submitted/new queries in Pending Queries tab and processing/completed queries in respective tab. Each query can view in detailed manner by clicking on eye button as shown in Figure 26.

3.6 In query detail panel, user can view the current status and ticket number of particular query. User can also make query extension or input some more detail regarding its query by simple click on ADD button. After adding, a new query thread will generate immediately and user can see the entire log of its particular query.
4. AU QUERY HANDLER LOGIN: The Query Handler can access the AU Facilitation Portal by visiting https://portals.au.edu.pk/austaff as well as https://portals.au.edu.pk/aufp. The employees can use AU-Staff portal credentials to make login for both screen as shown in Figure 1 and 2. If an employee has forgotten his password, then click on Forgot Password and provide essential information to set new password.
4.1 When user can successfully sign in then login in AU-Staff portal, employee can access the AU Facilitation Portal by using the link as mentioned on left side of Figure 30.

4.2 When user click on Facilitation then switching towards AU Facilitation Portal Dashboard will be shown, some essential detail of employee profile and his queries will show in small sections as highlighted. The Employee can see the list of Pending Queries, Processing Queries and Completed Queries in particular tabs.

The notifications option showing the number of pending queries and it will be updated whenever new query is added as shown on the right side of Figure 31. A user can initiate a new query, by click on the “Add New Query” button and input some essential details as shown in Figure 31.
4.3 To add a new query, user will input the following essential information as shown in Figure 32 and 33

- Select the desired department from dropdown list.
- Select query type according the selected department from dropdown list.
- Input query description in detailed manners.
- Upload a file (Optional)
- Select Urgent option for urgent type of queries otherwise choose normal type.
4.4. The user can see the list of submitted/new queries in Pending Queries tab and processing/completed queries in respective tab. Each query can view in detailed manner by clicking on eye button as shown in Figure 34.

!Figure 34

4.5 In query detail panel, user can view the current status and ticket number of particular query as well as the admin reply will be visible against query description.

User can also make query extension or input some more detail regarding its query by simple click on ADD button. After adding, a new query thread will generate immediately and user can see the entire log of its particular query.

!Figure 35
5. AU QUERY Handler Function: Each department has a Query handler that will handle the query received from the Employees/ Student /Outsider email as an alert. The query handler cannot see the report query report in form of a Graph as shown below in Figure 36.

5.1 The Query Handler will click on the “Eye Icon” button to view the detail of the query applied from the User side and click on the “Reply” Button to respond to query application related to the query situation as shown in figure 36.
5.2 The Query Handler can respond to the reply in “Add Replay Description” section and select the “Query Status” of the query application and upload file (optional) then click on “Submit”.

There are three types of query status:

- Pending Queries
- Processing Queries
- Completed Queries

---

6. SUPER ADMIN USER (Controller)

6.1 The Super Admin can access the AU Facilitation Portal by visiting https://portals.au.edu.pk/austaff as well as https://portals.au.edu.pk/aufp. The Super Admin can use AU-Staff portal credentials to make login for both screen as shown in Figure 40 and 41. If an employee has forgotten his password, then click on Forgot Password and provide essential information to set new password.
6.2 After login in AU-Staff portal, the Super Admin can access the AU Facilitation Portal by using the link as mentioned on left side of Figure 42.

6.3 After switching towards AU Facilitation Portal, some essential detail of employee profile and his queries will show in small sections as highlighted in Figure 43. User can see the list of Pending Queries, Processing Queries and Completed Queries in particular tabs.

The notifications option showing the number of pending queries and it will be updated whenever new query is added as shown on the right side of Figure 43. A user can initiate a new query, by click on the “Add New Query” button and input some essential details as shown in Figure 43.
6.4 To add a new query, Super Admin can input the following essential information as shown in Figure 44 and 45

- Select the desired department from dropdown list.
- Select query type according to the selected department from dropdown list.
- Input query description in detailed manners.
- Upload a file (Optional)
- Select Urgent option for urgent type of queries otherwise choose normal type.
6.5 The user can see the list of submitted/new queries in Pending Queries tab and processing/completed queries in respective tab. Each query can view in detailed manner by clicking on eye button as shown in Figure 46.

!Figure 46

6.6 In query detail panel, user can view the current status and ticket number of particular query as well as the admin reply will be visible against query description.

User can also make query extension or input some more detail regarding its query by simple click on ADD button. After adding, a new query thread will generate immediately and user can see the entire log of its particular query.

!Figure 47
6.7 The Super Admin can see the reports about the Query of the Department in form of graphics like Static, Pie, Bar Chart. as shown below in Figure 42.

!Pie chart

!Static chart

Figure 48

6.8 All the “Pending, Processing, Completed queries for Approval” are in the listed form that focuses the attention of the Manager that these applications need some action as show in Figure 49.

!Listed form

Figure 49
6.9 The Super Admin will only receive the "Meeting Required" query application from Outsider, Employee, Student. This type of query will only receive by director as email alert and only seen by director as shown in Figure 44.